Did you know?

Many professionals in the medical field start out as CNAs or Home Health Aides and move up into jobs in:

- Radiology / Imaging
- Respiratory Therapy
- Pharmacy Technology
- Phlebotomy / Laboratory
- Billing / Administration
- Nursing (LPN & RN)
- And beyond!

You can do it too!

Build a strong foundation for steady employment in the healthcare industry. Receive interactive classroom instruction with lectures, case studies, videos, and online media. You will also participate in a program enhanced Cultural Competency Foundations workshop alongside working medical professionals. Employment placement assistance will be provided.

The CNA training is licensed by the Division of Professional Licensure, Private Occupational School.
